The Tower 1944

Foreword

We, the Tower Board of 1941, have had the pleasure and privilege of compiling and editing this memorable archive of our four years of high school life. We hope that in years to come the joys we knew, the trials we endured, and the happiness of achievement will not be dimmed by the passage of time. May the turning of the pages of our chronicle ever recall to mind and inward eye the glad hours we knew.

We hope that our labors will not be judged from the vantage ground of literary excellence. We offer this annual simply as a memento of our youthful years.

REVEREND JEREMIAH D. SULLIVAN

Dedication

to

Father Sullivan

We, the Class of 1941, respectfully dedicate this volume of THE TOWER. Although the length of our association with Father Sullivan has been brief, we have come to appreciate deeply his counsel and friendship. Through this dedication we wish to express our gratitude and testament our solicitude for many splendid years to come.

HIS EXCELLENCY, MOST REVEREND MATTHEW FRANCIS BRADY, D.D.

Tribute to

Our Most Reverend Bishop

Of the many achievements wrought by the capable hands of His Excellency, Most Reverend Matthew Francis Brady, D.D., the ones that will endure the longest will be those done in the interest of Catholic education. During his yet brief reign as Prelate of Vermont's Catholics, new agencies of Catholic instruction have grown to maturity in a very brief time.

As grateful recipients of a Christian education, we wish to thank our Bishop from the heart's core for the invigorating influence he has exerted. We wish to pledge our wholehearted support in any educational project he may advance in the future. We pray that we may in some measure approach the standards that His Excellency has set for his flock.

RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR PATRICK C. BRENNAN, P.A., V.G.

Monsignor Brennan

In the four short years we have worked, laughed, and played at Cathedral High School, we have had the fortune to come under the patronage of a man we all love. Monsignor Brennan has always been a guide to light the way of truth and goodness. Never has he failed us in the support of any endeavor that made for our spiritual wealth. We humbly petition him to continue his generous protection of our interests. As members of the parish over which he presides we ask his blessing as we prepare to take up our rôles in living. May his blessing keep us true and faithful to the goodness of life.

In Memoriam

Richard Wakefield

Turn safe to rest, no dreams, no waking;
And here, man, here's the wreath I've made.
'Tis not a gift that's worth the taking,
But wear it and it will not fade.

Valedictory

As we are united together tonight for the last time, many thoughts pass through our minds. Not the least of these is the thought of stepping into a new world. As we have attained one goal in our life so we enter a new phase of living—a phase that, we know, has no ending. What lies in store for us we do not know. What our station in life will be, we do not know. We do know that we are some of the fortunate few today who have a standard to live up to, and a standard to bear.

Many schools of thought would have us believe that "Life is" not "real," "that life is" not "earnest." Many thinkers falsely teach that life does not extend beyond the grave. They teach us to attain a material end by the aggression of other nations, or of inferior races, of our religion, and of our form of government. But against these we have a set of standards or principles to uphold and follow. It is within us that these true principles will survive the erosion of history and time. They must survive our present chaos for the sake of mankind.

Are we prepared to go out into this new and changing world? We have been trained in all the elements of a true education—physical, mental, and moral. The very precepts which are fundamental and sacred to us are being challenged and attacked. In America, education is not carved along lines of a military character. Youth is not made to think that he was created for regimentation as he is in the totalitarian governments. The American youth's responsibilities are far more different. Fellow students, we must support Democracy by being able, conscientious, and self-sacrificing leaders or citizens. This responsibility has for its foundation, our minds—our teachers. They have guided us diligently these four years. Tomorrow we will be alone.

Last, but not least, we are prepared morally. Our greatest fear is not of the aggression by armed forces but the aggressions of way of thinking and living. We, like thousands of others on the eve of their commencement, are the ones to decide this all-important question. How sad it is to say that today, religion and morality, the pillars of Democracy, are weakening. We will go out onto the field and meet the foe who has lowered moral standards, who has tried to substitute mythology for religion or to uproot it entirely.

Our Catholic education is a perfect structure on which we may depend for social harmony, for how can we get along more happily than through a belief in God, kindness to others and respect for the rights of others?

Salutatory

Tonight brings us to the culmination of our high school career. For four long years we have looked forward eagerly and planned with brave hope for the success and happiness which has come to us in the attainment of our goal.

It is my privilege tonight to welcome our parents and friends that they may participate in the happiness which we experience in our graduation from Cathedral High School.

We all fully realize that this is a momentous occasion; that it is, in some sense, a turning point in our lives. Commencement marks the end of careless, carefree high school days, in which pleasures and difficulties, ambitions and hopes, work and play are shared by friends held together by years of constant and happy association at Cathedral. These ties are broken now and we are about to meet the real issues of life, which will test the stability of our character and prove whether or not our lives are shaped in conformity with those Christian principles which parents, teachers and spiritual guides have endeavored so diligently to instill into our young hearts.

The experiences we will meet with outside the protection of the classroom and the gymnasium we know cannot be as gracious and kind as those we knew in school. We ask those who are in a position to accommodate us to our new way of living to accept us with an appreciation for our newness. We are not used to the complexities of this fast-moving world. We will need help. This help we hope to receive from those who have lived more years than we have. This aid we pray the angels will give in guiding us on our way.

We have taken advantage of the educational and experimental facilities society has had to offer; now we ask simply that society will accept the products of its systems with open arms. The difficulties of living are many and we readily are cognizant of these difficulties. We have learned to know them and recognize them. Now we must learn to cope with them and subject them to living well. Please help us.

Class History

No class as famous as our own Class of 1941 could ever consider leaving Cathedral High School without bequeathing to those who come after us some record of our greatness. Of course, most of us will go down in history, but some of the highlights of our high school career might be lost in oblivion were it not for this account.

The sun shone brightly on the first Tuesday of September, 1937, when we received the little yellow slips which we thought were cross-word puzzles, but which the upperclassmen, whose books we had bought at twice their value, condescended with their superior knowledge to explain, were the schedules of our classes. Luckily, time has a mellowing effect on such memories. Before long, we knew all the tricks of those upperclassmen, and they had become aware of our true worth and soon were counted among our fast friends.

Since this is an age of organization, and we are definitely characteristic of our age, we immediately proceeded to elect class officers, choosing Rosemary Hartigan as class president and Lorraine Paquette and John Whalen to fill the subordinate offices.

Soon Class Nite came to claim our attention. With the help of Father Fox and Miss Fayette, we presented a skit entitled "Book of Nations." We need not describe this marvelous production—everyone in Burlington remembers that the Freshmen won first prize in 1937.

All teachers agreed that we were a model class and ever since, we have maintained that record.

Other than these our great deeds were few, but we did figure prominently in the New England Festival held in Burlington that year.

As Sophomores, we launched into affairs with George Cayo as our leader. Chosen to be his advisers were James O'Brien, Marie Hammond and Rosemary Hartigan.

On Class Nite, in our Sophomore year, we presented the "Evolution of the Dance" and for our efforts received no reward, thus shattering all those dreams we had about being the only class ever "to win the first prize in Stunt Nite for four consecutive years."

During the spring of 1939 we enjoyed dancing at the first socials ever held at Cathedral High School, but even though this popular pastime was enjoyed, we really managed to accomplish an enormous amount of work.

As upperclassmen in our third year, we gave the leadership to Patricia Reuschel, with George Cayo, Marie Hammond and James O'Brien as co-officers.

At Stunt Nite that fall, we took the house down with our Miniature Minstrel, thereby recapturing the silver cup which represents the first honor.

That was the year that Cathedral's champion basketball team went to Portland for the New England Tournament—and among the members of that team were three of our Junior classmates—Kenneth Miller, Vincent Welch and Edward Chasteney.

In June, we learned that Father Fox, our beloved principal, could not be with us to guide us through our last year in high school. This was a great disappointment to us, but at the Junior-Senior Banquet he introduced his successor, Father Sullivan, whom we have learned to honor and respect.

One of our first acts as Seniors was to elect class officers, giving the honor of presidential office to Robert Brown and the offices of vice-president, secretary and treasurer to Rosemary Hartigan, Vincent Welch and Fiore Bove.

Our "Hotel Scene" in Stunt Nite brought us, we are sorry to say, nothing but a headache.

Basketball time rolled around again with Kenneth Miller and Vincent Welch representing the Seniors. We were all heartbroken when we lost the tournament, but everyone agreed that Cathedral had an excellent team and that they were good sports.

The Catholic Press Exhibit of February was the first of its kind to be held at school and its success was due to the efforts of the Senior girls under the direction of a faculty adviser. Hundreds of books, pamphlets and magazines were on display, and judging from the number who attended the exhibit, its purpose was attained.

Activity Week, beginning on Monday, May 5, and lasting until Friday evening, was another highlight of our Senior year. The first part of the week was taken up with the Forty Hours Devotion, and many lectures and discussions on vocations. The second part of the week found the school auditorium dotted with booths erected and run by class representatives. Everyone who attended enjoyed the fun and festivity of this unusual entertainment.

This brought us to the week of the general sessions of the New England Confraternity of Christian Doctrine which were held in Burlington under the direction of His Excellency, the Bishop and members of the clergy. Many Cathedral students attended and participated in the activity of this congress. It is an experience that we will long remember.

The rest of the school year was spent in preparation for Class Nite exercises and the Commencement program. These two events marked the end of four long years and we lost on June 12 our identity as active participants in a great class.

Class Prophecy

Have you ever been in an explosion? Gladys and I had such an experience and our misfortune happened just in the nick of time, for it pulled us out, or rather, blew us up from the depths of despair into which we had fallen, after futile attempts to write our class prophecy.

In our search for material we decided to amble through the classrooms in the hope of finding much needed inspiration. In the Chemistry Laboratory we found Bud Harrington in the midst of a baffling experiment. We decided to investigate. Then it happened! After a few moments, we became vaguely aware that Bud had failed in his attempts to advance science.

In some inexplicable manner our mental status was affected by the explosion and in our own minds we seemed to have been projected ten years into the future. Apparently we were in a strange world. We gazed about in bewilderment. There was no trace of Bud.

Our only hope lay in an appeal to the F. B. I. There we found Martha Lee who was busy with the reports of the 1951 census. The first piece of information she gave us was that we had landed in the small town of Upton which often before had been the refuge of Cathedralites.

We looked over Martha's shoulder and learned from the census sheet that many of our classmates were prominent Americans.

Rosemary Hartigan, for instance, had been voted No. 1 mother of America.

Lawrence Gagnon finally succeeded John Neary as janitor of Cathedral High School.

Patricia Gill had been voted by the Vogue Magazine as a personality plus girl.

Isabel Gokey is secretary to Paul Regan, who is an up-and-coming business man in Hinesburg.

Mary Ann Kudiesy have just finished Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony."

Robert Michaud is a male nurse at the Bishop DeGoesbriand Hospital, with Janice Moran and Mary Margaret Daly, keeping him company as ladies in white.

We were thoroughly enjoying this when Martha interrupted to tell us that Ruth Kirkbride, whose name was not on the sheet, had been selected as Favorite Debutante of 1951; voted in Lakeside.

We heard a little bustle and a giggle and we turned to find Betty Sanborn, ticket taker at the Metropolitan Opera House, and Betty, as always, was willing to supply us with more information. She told us that Frank Maietta was a most successful artist in New York and has that famous model, Dorothy "Dark Eyes" Mimeau, as his inspiration.

She also told us that Concetta D'Orazio was playing a violin in the Boston Symphony. She said that her friend Dorothy Farmer was modeling hose for the Nylon Company, whose president was none other than Michael Fuller.

At that time Martha came pattering in with another census sheet. At the top of the list we saw that Charley Dooley was a master mechanic in the army.

Arthur Audette's newly organized band had become the sensation of the nation.

Genie Albarelli had taken over Miss Fayette's duties as coach of the girls' basketball team at Cathedral High School.

Eva Barbeau was a receptionist in Hilda Barney's Beauty Salon with Rita Barrette as manicurist.

Fred Powers delivered "Honey Dew Doughnuts," on his bicycle, to his steady customers.

George Cayo has perfected a new parachute in which he can come down when he goes up unexpectedly.

Patricia Kelley has married an army sergeant and is the proud mother of a ten-pound bouncing baby boy.

George Malloy is the president of "The City's Wolf Association."

William Kinville is chief accountant for the McCann, McClintock, McCormick Mattress Movers, Inc.

Bones Lafayette is chief engineer at Norwich University.

Audrey Levick is secretary for Mr. Victor Meilleur, mayor of Essex Junction.

Robert McGowan is co-starred with Theresa Des Vergnes in the latest Broadway hit, "Blondes are Fickle" or "Why Girls Leave Home."

Mary Rita Rock has composed her latest comic strip "Red Ryder Rides Again."

There were no more of the 1941 graduates on this page, so we chatted a bit and our conversation turned to Marie Hammond, who is a teacher in the Little Red Schoolhouse in Jericho. She rides back and forth to school with Arthur LeBlanc the famous auto racer. She feels secure because Richard Earley has written several insurance policies for her which cover a number of contingencies.

We also talked about Joe Nault who is editor of his own newspaper, with Vernon Shea as chief photographer, Anna Marie Roland writing the daily Etiquette column, James O'Brien as editor of the Farm and Dairy section, and Vincent Welch is doing a fine job with the Social Activities.

Just then a long black taxi pulled up to the curb and we found the driver to be Lillian Benard who was owner and operator of the only woman taxi service in the country. Mary Margaret Foy stepped graciously from the cab. She was now the most famous concert pianist in America. She told us that she had just visited with Lorraine Paquette, who is dean of women at Vassar. Martha somehow produced more census sheets and we delved into them. We found that—

Betty Burns and Ursula Ryan had finally succeeded in becoming the new comediennes of Bob Hope's hour, and Claire Bombard has taken over the stand of Patirot in front of Joe's Barber Shop.

Fiori Bove is sponsor of the "Dinty Moore Corned Beef and Cabbage Hour."

Dorothy Neary is president of the Mother's Club, and Edward McGrath is business manager of the Boston Bees.

Marion Mills is now starred in her latest hit "The Wife of Zorro."

Dorothy Moore is manager of a successful Personal Escort Bureau, with Fred Connor, Bob Brown, Reide Payne, Kenny Miller in the greatest demand.

Mary Collins is now running a successful school for milkmaids, with Laura Palm, Mary Fish, Eleanor Russell, and Pat Reuschel as star pupils.

Shirley Whitney is now modeling winter sports clothes at Mazel's.

Peter Rousseau has achieved his life-long ambition to be headmaster at Smith College, with John Whalen as janitor.

And suddenly a dizzy feeling came over both of us—our surroundings disappeared and we found ourselves in Father Sullivan's office. He had somehow brought us back to reality. The explosion had not been a serious one, but Gladys and I decided that it had certainly solved our problems.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1941 of Cathedral High School, in the city of Burlington, County of Chittenden, and State of Vermont, being of sound mind, memory, and understanding, do make, publish, and declare the following as and for our last Will and Testament, annulling all Wills made heretofore.

To Father Sullivan—We leave our best wishes for continued success.

To Sister Columba—The Memorial Auditorium for "jug."

To Mr. Hammond—We leave our regrets for taking with us an intelligent Chemistry class.

To Mr. Lechnyr—We leave a mirage of the C. H. S. Band marching in new uniforms.

To Mrs. Holcomb—An unfailing supply of new batons.

To Miss Fayette—A class with high-scoring basketball ability.

To Mr. Herbert—We leave a set of English reference books to be used by his future English students.

To the Juniors—We leave our intellectual ability—if it is not too late.

To the Sophomores—A challenge to break our record and win Stunt Nite three years.

To the Freshmen—Our good example of silence between classes.

To "Chuck" Villemaire—George Cayo leaves a landing place in case he is dropped.

To Ray Michaud—Art Audette leaves two empty gum boxes.

To Paul Hebert—Three Senior girls bequeath a map of Burlington.

To June Gill—Pat Gill leaves her congenial laugh and ability to be popular.

To Gloria Linsenmeir—Dot Moore leaves a book entitled, "The Ways and Means of Undertaking."

To a Junior Majorette—Lorraine Paquette bequeaths her place as captain.

To Pal Evelti—The Senior girls donate one cent each for a round-trip to Boston.

To Eddie McMahan—Vincent Welch leaves a permanent place in the stag line.

To those Junior boys—Charles Dooley leaves a special rendition of "The Bells of St. Mary's."

To anyone who is capable—Bob Brown wills a large pair of shoes to be filled.

To Don Lumbra—Frank Maietta bequeaths a pair of long pants.

To Geraldo D'Orazio—Mary Grogan and Mary Collins leave their permission to go to the movies on any sunny afternoon.

To Oscar Dahl—We leave a five-year schedule for high school.

To Nancy Rock—Betty Sanborn leaves the title "Queen of Giggles."

To Howard Mallory—Dot Mimeau bequeaths a zipper to keep his mouth closed while dreaming in class.

To Dinky Perreault—Martha Lee wills her scrap-book entitled "Memories."

To Mildred Premeau—Annie Winderl leaves her much-sought-after place in the All-State chorus.

To Billy Aunchman—A Senior boy leaves a deed to a space on the dance floor, so that the rest can dance in peace.

To Mary Malloy—We bequeath the title of No. 1 Deb of the Class of '42.

To the other Rocks—Mary Rita says, "Carry on."

To her sister—Jane Hayes leaves a booklet entitled, "Honor Student's Study."

To any girl who wants it—Mike Fuller wills his telephone number. Call soon.

To Mike Peck—Claire Bombard leaves her very best wishes.

To Ken Akey—Kenny McGrath bequeaths his numerous excuses for getting out of class.

To Lizzie Moore—Concetta D'Orazio leaves her first violin.

To Dolores Murphy—Mary M. Daley bequeaths an alarm clock to get up Earley.

To John Gill—A reserve section for observing the technique of other dancers.

To Nancy O'Neil—Windy Payne leaves you "High on a Windy Hill."

Pat Gill leaves Ray Brown—His freedom at festival time.

To future typing students—We bequeath a few broken typewriters.

To anyone who can offord it—Our treasurer leaves the unpaid bills.

To Pete Gadue—We leave the South Park skating rink and a yard of blue ribbon so that he may make his own racing prizes.

To a first-class trumpet player—Richard Earley bequeaths his place in All-State band.

To Pal Evelti—Ken Miller leaves his place as captain of the basketball team.

To Jacqueline LeMay—Dot Farmer bequeaths a sum of pennies to use in the foot-ease machine before marching.

To Jack Gleason—Tom Holcomb leaves advice on "How to handle women."

To Pat Burns—Betty Sanborn bequeaths her vitality and class spirit.

To Harry Davison—Bob McGowan leaves a parking place in front of the school

Signed and sealed this eleventh day of June, nineteen hundred forty-one.

THE CLASS OF NINETEEN HUNDRED FORTY-ONE.

CATHOLIC

Class Night

Class Night was again a huge success as it has been in the past. Capacity crowds were in attendance at all performances. The various acts were marked by exceptional personal and group ability.

This year the judges, whose decisions were based on originality, interpretation, scenery, costumes, and acting ability, awarded the first prize to a fine Sophomore group. They presented a picturesque gypsy camp and the manner of life that flows about the persons of this roaming people.

The second prize went to the Freshman Class. Their act consisted of a clever parody on the current popular radio program—"Information Please." The Freshmen are to be cited for the marked ability they showed in their first public appearance at Cathedral. We wish them many more favorable performances.

The Juniors worked out a particularly appropriate sketch on King Arthur's court. The Burlesque was worked out with the spirit of the modern melodrama as the theme and overtone of the act. The Senior act was placed in the lobby of a summer hotel. It featured a colored band and vocalist.

Class Banquets

In the early part of this school year the Mothers' Club of Cathedral High School rendered to the Freshman and Sophomore classes their annual banquet. The gymnasium was attractively and appropriately decorated in Green and White.

The head table was graced with the presence of the Right Reverend Monsignor Brennan, Reverend Jeremiah Sullivan and members of the school faculty. A musical entertainment was presented immediately following the banquet.

After the formal proceeding was finished the large attendance retired to the auditorium where an impromptu dance was held.

The Junior and Senior classes were also given a banquet toward the close of the school year. The program was very similar to the one which accompanied the previous banquet.

The TOWER wishes to express the deep gratitude of the students to the Mothers' Club for making these occasions possible.

The Catholic Press Exhibit

A Catholic Press Exhibit was held at Cathedral High School during the last week in February. It was an exhibit that offered to book lovers an opportunity to examine every type of literature produced by the Catholic press.

The display included a number of Catholic newspapers, periodicals, and many pamphlets. Also in the exhibit were numerous Catholic volumes ranging from biography to fiction. Some volumes were displayed of Catholic poetry written for the most part by members of the clergy.

Much care and fine taste were shown in the placement and choice of material. The students had a good practical lesson in book lore and Catholic Action. The display was largely taken care of by the Senior girls. They did a fine piece of work, and deserve to be commended for their efforts.

Tower Week

This year a whole week was devoted to the gaiety of music and festival. The date was concurrent with the annual State Music Festival. The various musical organizations of the school held a concert on the evening of May 7. It was well attended by the many friends of the school and by the parents of the students.

The auditorium was attractively lined with carnival booths erected by the skill and initiative of the several classes. They drew well and a fine profit was shown to the TOWER and to the school.

One day was set aside for the exclusive patronage of the Grammar School. The children flocked over in droves and seemed to have a very enjoyable time. The adults reverting, perhaps, to their younger days entered into the festivity of the week by contributing generously to the coffers of all booths.

Senior Semi-Formal

For the first time in many years the Senior Class held its own Semi-formal in the High School auditorium. The music was furnished by the Catamounts who played from eight to eleven-thirty.

The auditorium was attractively decorated in a patriotic motif. The dance was well attended by the student body who seemed to indicate by its behavior that such events should find an easy establishment at Cathedral. It proved to be one of the most entertaining events of the school year.

The chaperones who attended the dance included from the school faculty Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hammond, Miss Theresa Fayette, Mr. Fred Coffey, and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Herbert.

On Parade

Music

Music has long ago found a lasting place in the curriculum of Cathedral High School. The present year has been most successful. The band under the capable and inspiring leadership of Mr. Joseph F. Lechnyr has proven its worth and excellence on many occasions, especially in the several parades and concerts it attended. Mr. Lechnyr has devoted his time and abilities unsparingly to the promotion of music at Cathedral and deserves many tokens of appreciation from the pupils and supporters of the school. The orchestra also under the direction of Mr. Lechnyr has achieved an interpretive ability that marks this as an exceptional year for music in this school.

No school would be complete without its glee clubs, and this school feels far superior to most. With several groups under her direction Mrs. James M. Holcomb has blended together fine singing units. They have added much to our pleasure by their several splendid performances. Mrs. Holcomb has spent a great deal of time with the Girls', Boys', and Mixed groups and may well be proud of the effects she has produced.

Music will always be a part, and a large part, of the program, at this school. We feel behooved at this time to mention that these musical orgnizations are deserving of more support than they have received in the past.

W. L. HAMMOND, Coach

KENNETH MILLER, Captain

FRANCIS LAFAYETTE, Manager

Mr. William L. Hammond

Looking back over the fine record of the Cathedral basketball team for the past season we again find a team surpassed by none in this state. The "Little Indians" truly reflect the ability of Coach Bill Hammond as a master at the art of developing raw material. Again this year as has happened many times in the past, he brought along a green team to championship caliber.

Coach Hammond began his long career at Cathedral way back in the early fall of 1920. Since then his teams have always figured conspicuously in this state's basketball circles. He brought the first state championship to Catherdal as soon as 1921. Other championships were added in '22, '39 and '40. In twenty-one years as head coach of basketball his teams have amassed a total of 324 victories against 100 defeats. This envious record the Class of '41 challenges any coach in this state to equal, much less surpass.

All of Mr. Hammond's accomplishments have not been on the basketball courts. He will be remembered longer, perhaps, as the teacher of sciences, at least by those who have had the privilege of attending his classes. Mr. Hammond's ability as a teacher is as well known to the students as his ability as a court strategian is known to sport fans.

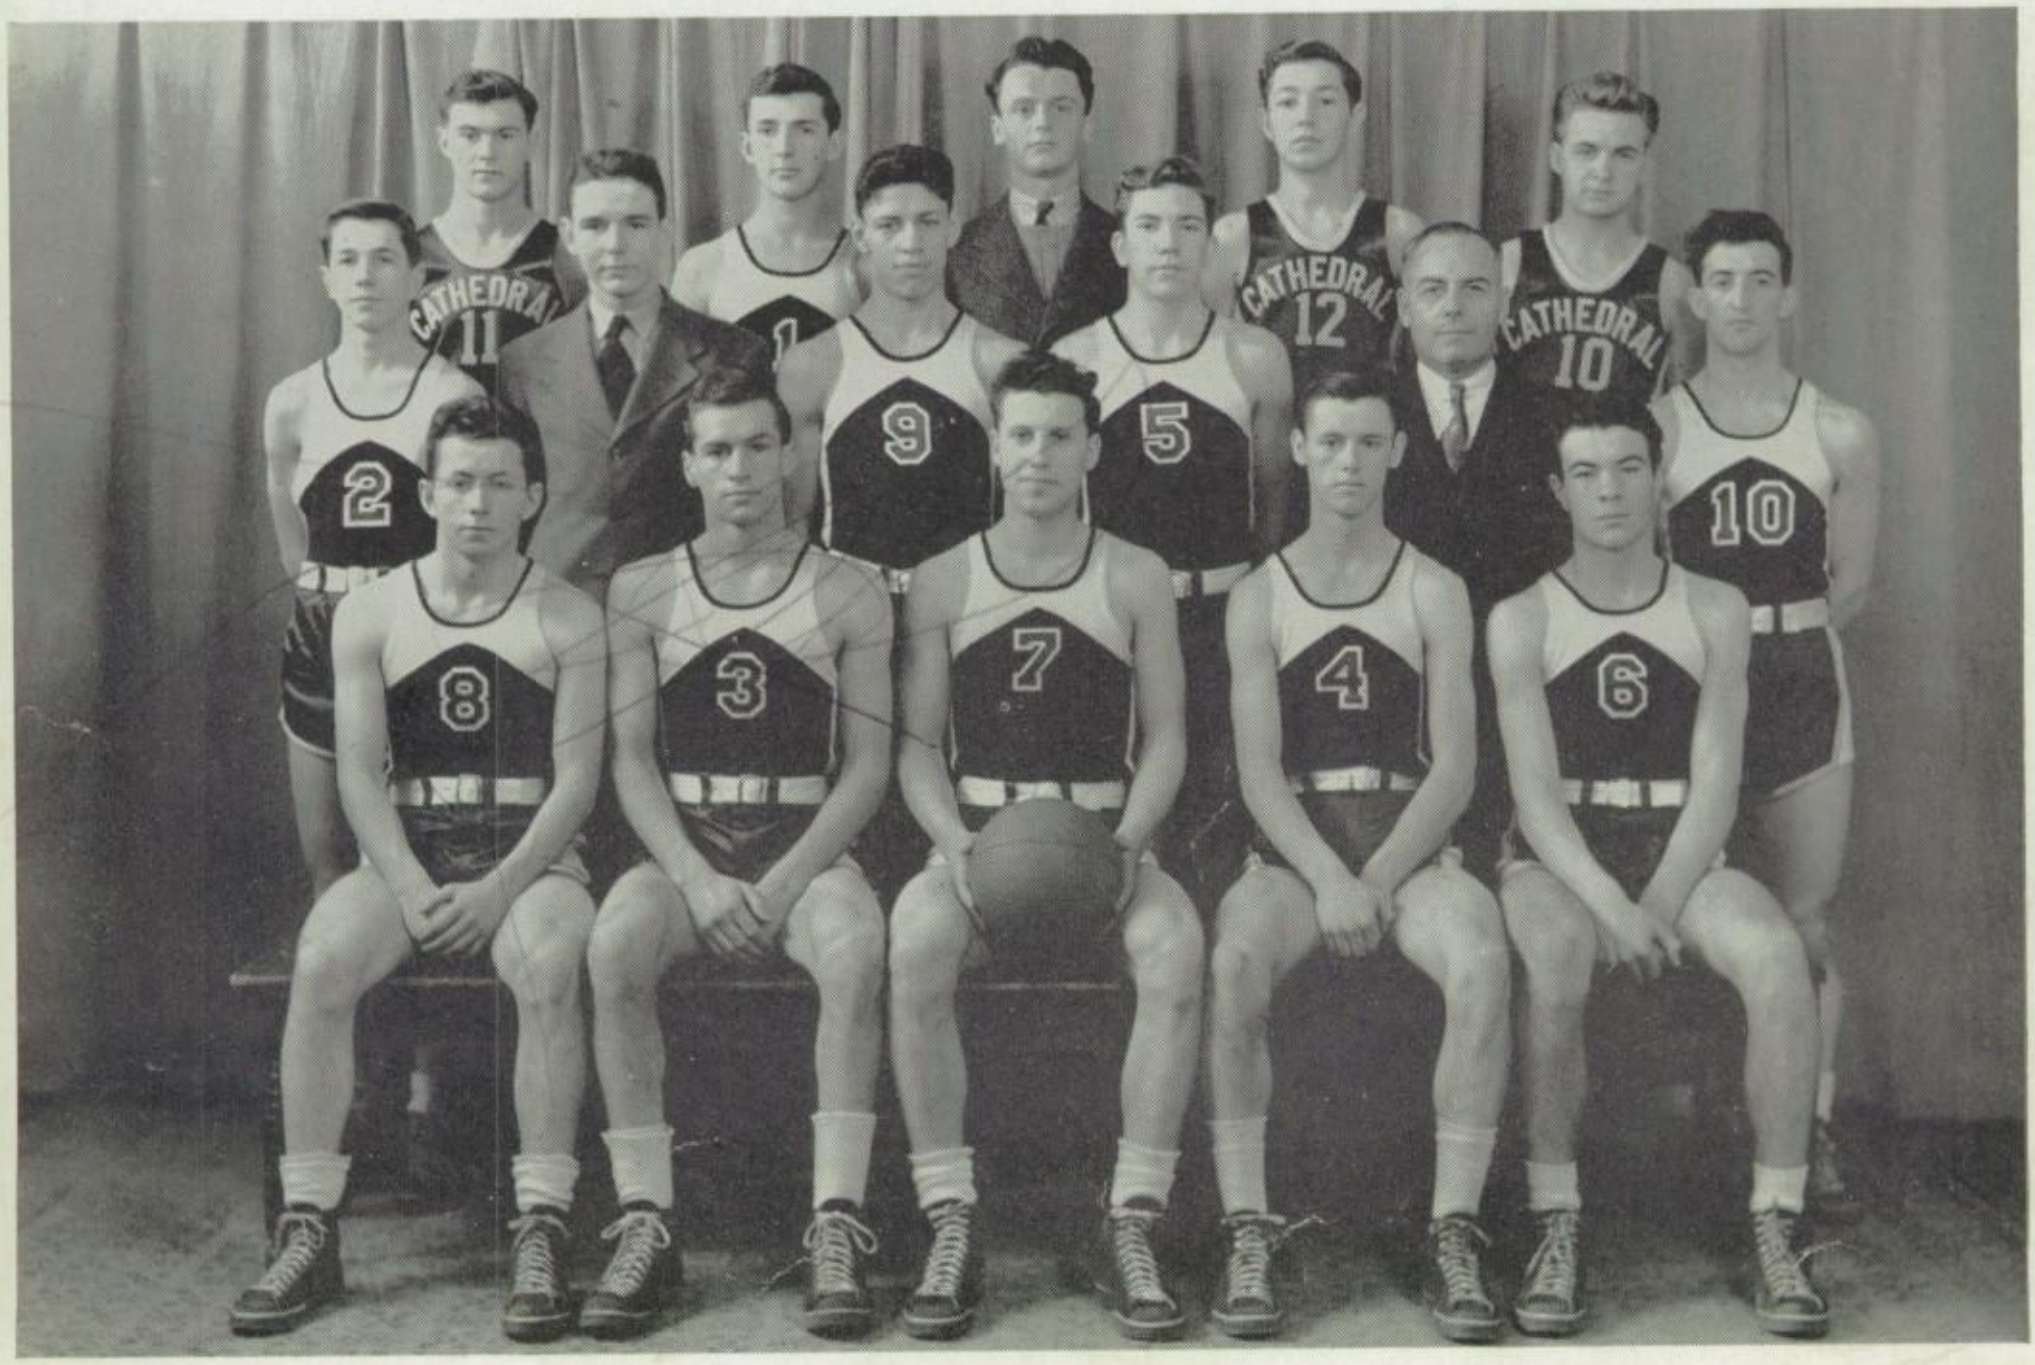
"Little Indians"

Although the "Little Indians" of 1940-41 failed to win their third straight state championship, and did not equal the record of the team of last year, they did compile one of the best and most notable records in C.H.S. history.

Their record shows only one loss to a scholastic foe and eighteen victories out of twenty-one starts. Until the final game of the state tournament they had beaten every school team in sight, and had gone undefeated in Northern League competition for the second consecuive year.

Their defeat at the hands of Burlington High School's "Blueboys" in the finals of the state championship scramble marked the end of a victory streak of thirty-six straight that began way back in February, 1939.

We offer this year's team as still another tribute to not only a great coach but also a fine school spirit.



Cathedral 22
U. V. M. Frosh 35

The boys bowed in this their opening game to what later proved to be one of the best Frosh teams U. V. M. has ever produced. Capt. Ken Miller, Pal Evelti, and Vin Welch, starting his first varsity game, showed promise of leading Cathedral to another successful court season.

Cathedral 24
Vermont J. C. 25

Cathedral played fine basketball in holding a strong Junior College five to a one-point win. The game was never slow, but proved productive of some of the finest play of the year.

Cathedral 61
Mount St. Joseph's 43

Cathedral in meeting its first scholastic foe of the year severely trounced Al. Baldwin's boys. Pal Evelti and Ken Akey led a high-powered scoring attack to one of the highest scores of the year. Cathedral was on the way now.

Cathedral 51
St. Mary's 24

The "Little Indians" traveled to St. Albans where they very impressively crushed a fighting St. Mary's team. Evelti, Brown, and Akey tallied 24, 18, and 12 points respectively.

Cathedral 35 Kennie Akey, Junior forward, very definitely clinched a starting berth
Rutland 21 as he poured 17 points against Rutland's "Red Raiders." This was the second southern basketball power that Cathedral had beaten, and seemed to indicate accurately the continuance of the superiority of the Northern teams.

Cathedral 53 In taking their Northern League opener, the "Indians" began to perform
Spaulding 27 like the championship teams of the past two years. Evelti, Brown, and Akey accounted for 38 points. Brown led the scoring with 16.

Cathedral 26 With "Chief" Ken Miller and his ace scalper "Pal" Evelti leading the Burlington 20 battle the redmen garnered the first game of the city series. Pal pushed in 10 points, and was the hub of the attack. Miller held Burlington's scoring ace, Huntington, scoreless in a splendid exhibition of guarding.

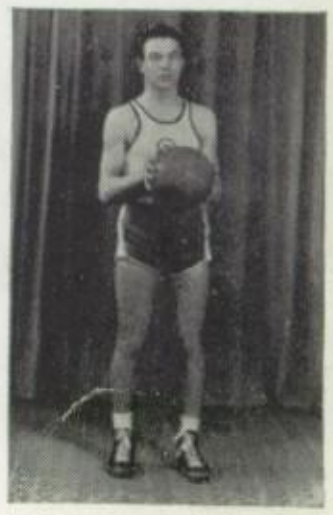
Cathedral 48 In a game that looked at the end of the first half as though the Millers
Winooski 28 might be a Northern League "dark horse," Cathedral showed its championship metal in the second half by opening a margin of 20 points. This win gave the team undisputed possession of first place in the league. Pal Evelti continued to set the scoring pace with 23 points.



Cathedral 29
Vermont J. C. 24

The Green and White got sweet revenge for one of the blemishes on their record by outplaying a strong Junior College five from Montpelier. The win came in spite of the efforts of the former Cathedralite, "Red" Merola, who threw in a spectacular 10 points. Evelti was high for the home team with 10.

Cathedral 55
Bellows Free Acad. 30

Because of poor support and a decreased gate receipt Cathedral was forced to seek new stamping grounds for this victory. They chose the B. H. S. gym in which to show their superiority over Bob White's St. Albanites. Pal Evelti continued to set the pace, and widened his league scoring margin with 18 points. Vin Welch played a great game at guard and contributed 9 to the high total.

Cathedral 31
Montpelier 22

With Miller, Evelti, and Brown each chalking up 10 points against the zone defense of the Capital City boys Cathedral continued to set the Northern League pace.

Cathedral 38
Burlington 20

With "Pal" Evelti showing the way the Green and White marked up their second victory over the boys from across the city. In doing so they clinched the City Series for the third straight year. Brown and Akey, our fighting forwards, scored 13 and 11 points respectively. "Kennie" Miller again held Burlington's ace, Huntington, scoreless from the floor.

Cathedral 39 With Evelti quite recovered from an ankle injury the "Little Indians" had Winooski 21 little trouble in beating Winooski on the Auditorium surface. This game was the nightcap in a scholastic double header staged in an effort to increase the interest in basketball in Burlington. Pal Evelti continued to increase his Northern League scoring total by tossing in 18 counters.

Cathedral 38 The Cathedral victory string reached thirteen as the team
St. Michael's J. V.'s 33 topped a good team from the hilltop. The scoring was fairly evenly divided with Miller and Akey getting 10, and Evelti and Brown getting 8.

Cathedral 39 Playing at the Auditorium, Cathedral had little trouble in winning Montpelier 28 their fourteenth at the expense of the Solons of Montpelier. "Ken" Akey topped the scoring with 13.

Cathedral 48 The Indians wound up their Northern League season by rout-
Bellows Free Acad. 35 ing the last place St. Albans team. "Pal" Evelti broke his own Northern League scoring record of 121 points by tallying 14 counters and establishing a new mark of 127 points. An average of 12.3 points per game.

Cathedral 37 The team traveled next to Springfield to engage the class of the Southern Springfield 30 district. They met with a fine team, one that fought until the final gun found Cathedral on top by a comfortable margin of 7 points. "Pal" Evelti gave the southern fans a treat to as fine an exhibition of shooting as they have seen in many a day. He threw in 20 points to show the way for both teams.

Vermont State Tournament

Cathedral 33
Mt. St. Joseph's 24

In their opening game of the tournament the boys were pressed harder than the score may indicate by the "Green Wave" from Rutland. The parochialites from Rutland could not keep pace and faltered at the end as Cathedral drew away to lead by a 9-point margin at the gun. Captain Miller, Evelti, and Akey tallied 29 points.

Cathedral 45
Montpelier 33

In the semi-finals Cathedral again faced a team that gave its all for three quarters and then fell off the pace. An inspired Montpelier team that had never showed much promise during the regular season suddenly became a threat. The threat however, was overcome in the fourth quarter as the boys held the Solons scoreless. Ray Brown playing one of his finest games of the year threw in 20 markers.

Cathedral 28
Burlington 31

In a torrid battle that lacked not one minute of excitement the Green and White went down to defeat before an inspired and fighting Burlington High team. So marked the end of a good many Cathedral hopes for retiring the trophy emblematic of State championship and domination for three consecutive years.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The basketeers that may be the varsity of the Cathedral teams in the next few years launched their season by overpowering a weak St. Mary's second team. The boys compiled a fine record of nine wins against two losses. The two losses they suffered came at the hands of teams they had previously defeated. These are the boys who are so often not accorded any credit for the honors that may come to the school through basketball competition. We give them to you as our candidates for the rôle of good sports and hard workers.

Jimmy O'Hare and Jack Lynch led the scoring for the squad.

Class Basketball

A new high in interest, if not in ability, was shown in the intramural basketball program this year. There were close to a hundred students who participated in the program this year.

In the "A" and "B" Leagues, divided as closely as possible with regard to ability, the Senior teams won easily over the other class teams. An innovation in the form of an acceptance of an Eighth Grade team in the "A" League proved interesting as well as disastrous for some of the high school classes. The end of the season found the graders above the first two high school classes. This might well serve notice of some fine material for future Cathedral varsities.

At the close of the regular season a mixed tournament was held. The championship game was decided only after an exciting two-overtime session. The Green team led the way in most of the tournament and were pre-tourney favorites. They found the competition far from easy in the finals and won only after a hard fight. The players of the winning team received appropriate awards. "Shorty" Gagnon of the White team received an award as being the one "most valuable to his team."

Girls' Basketball

The girls' varsity basketball team finished their schedule with three wins in six starts to their credit. They were much handicapped by the loss of key players in two games, due to illness and injury.

On January 10, the Cathedral girls' team got off to a fine start by defeating Winooski easily by a score of 33-22. "Connie" Papin led the scoring on her home court with 18 points.

Encouraged by this victory the girls traveled to Winooski later in the month, and once more left the floor the victor. They beat the Mill City lassies on their own court 26-22.

The third game, held on February 3, was at Essex Junction. Monica Rock paced her team to an eleven-point margin over the opponents with 18 points. She was ably supported by the outstanding defensive work of the guards—Remily, Lawrence, and Staab.

C.H.S. met its first defeat at the hands of a more experienced Burlington team. The B.H.S. sextet spurted in the second half to lead at the end by the score of 28-16. Doris Lawrence's illness handicapped the team's chances considerably in this game, and although Cathedral led at half time they didn't have the stamina to go the route.

A return engagement was held with Essex Junction on February 21. In a bitterly fought contest Cathedral lost 15-13. Nancy and Monica Rock each scored five points.

The schedule was rounded out by a last tilt with B.H.S. Norma Remily, a valuable guard, was injured in the first half when she suffered a broken collarbone. Disheartened, the girls were not in form and lost 29-14. Nancy Rock was high scorer with 8 points.

And so ended the season. The girls are now looking forward to another and even more successful season. With this year's experience in back of them all of this year's team will return to the wars next year, with the exception of Mary Rita Rock, in hopes of setting a record Cathedral teams may shoot at for a long time.

Baseball

Due to financial conditions Cathedral has been forced to drop its baseball representative out of Northern League competition. This was a severe blow not only to the boys who participate in this sport but also to the many loyal fans that have followed the fortunes of Cathedral athletic programs for many years.

Some minor program has been devised to maintain the interest of the students in the game. A tentative four-game schedule has been planned with Burlington and Winooski High Schools as the opponents. A softball competition will be run off between the classes for the benefit of those who are not so proficient at baseball. Thus it is hoped that the interest of the students will not wane in the great American game, but will live strong enough to warrant the return of the school team to the baseball campaigns of the future with renewed vigor and strength.

Golf

Very shortly after the opening of school this fall candidates for the golf team were called out. A gratifying number reported and fought it out for the first four positions. These first four would comprise the team that would travel to Woodstock to compete in the State Scholastic Tourney.

Those who made the team after a stiff qualifying round were "Shorty" Gagnon, "Pal" Evelti, "Bob" Lane, and "Pat" Sheehan. These four traveled to Woodstock on September 21 where they placed fifth among a large number of entries. "Shorty" Gagnon finished fifth in the race for individual honors.

Results of the scoring at Woodstock:

Gagnon	83	Lane	93
Evelti	89	Sheehan	93

Tennis

This year tennis seems to have come into its own at Cathedral High. At the first call for candidates a promising number of players reported. Prospects at the present time for a successful season are brightest since the 1936 and 1937 teams were crowned state champs.

Although Cathedral has not the blessings of home courts, they have obtained the permission of the authorities to use the St. Michael's College courts. As this book goes to press if all plans proceed well the team will have scheduled home and home matches with Burlington, Rutland, Spaulding, Montpelier, and Bellows Free Academy.

Veteran players returning from last year's undefeated team are Capt. Fred Connor, and Fred Powers, both undefeated last year. Among the new prospects are Ken Akey, Carl Coffey, and Vin Welch from the basketball squad. Others eligible for the team are Bill Wright, Jack Hayes, Al Perreault, Bill Murphy, Mike Fuller, Bob Picher, Bud Harrington, Bill Blanchard, and Jack Boardman.

Green Mountain Boys State

Six of this year's Junior Class have been appointed to attend the 1941 Green Mountain Boys State at Norwich University, Northfield, Vermont. The fortunate six who are to reside at the University between June 15 and June 22 are: Raymond John Michaud, Michael Peck, John Lynch, Patrick Sheehan, Jack Hayes, and Jack Boardman.

We wish these boys the best of luck and hope that they will profit much from their experience. In times like these the experience gained from a week at Boys State should prove to be quite valuable. Government is a thing to be known by every responsible citizen, and known well if that government is to prosper.

The Old Familiar Faces

"I have had playmates, I have had companions,
In days of childhood, in my joyful school days;
All, my all are gone, the old familiar faces."

PAT GILL

"These delights if you can give,
Mirth, with thee I mean to live."

JAMES O'BRIEN

"I am not one who much or oft delight
To season my fireside with personal talk."

LORRAINE PAQUETTE

"And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew
That one small head could carry all she knew."

ROBERT McGOWAN

"A dillar, a dollar, a ten o'clock scholar,
What makes you come so late?"

MAE GROGAN

"Come, and trip it as you go,
On the light, fantastic toe; . . ."

BONES LAFAYETTE

"Serenely full, the epicure would say;
Fate cannot harm me. I have dined today."

MARTHA LEE

"Age cannot wither nor custom stale
Her infinite variety."

JOHN WHALEN

"An honest man, close buttoned to the chin Broadcloth without and a warm heart within."

BETTY SANBORN

"Woman—she needs no eulogy, she speaks
For herself."

KENNETH McGRATH

"He stood four square to all the winds that blew,
And had he failings, they would lean to virtue's side."

LOUIS NAULT

"Take the cash, and let the credit go."

MARIE HAMMOND

"But if the while 'we' think on thee, dear friend,
All losses are restored, and sorrows end."

KEN MILLER

"I am the master of my fate;
I am the captain of my soul."

CLAIRE BOMBARD

"They by the wayside are earnest of your goodness,
You are of life's on the banks that line the way."

GEORGE CAYO

"But when to mischief mortals bend their wills,
How soon they find fit instruments of ill."

DOT MIMEAU

"The star like sorrows of immortal eyes,
Slowly in their place."

BOBBIE B[illegible]N

"Let [illegible]ive to be a hundred! We want him on earth!"

ROSEMARY [illegible]IGAN

"Fate gives us parents; choice gives us friends."

FRANK MAIETTA

"All the many sounds of nature borrowed
Sweetness from his singing."

MARY M. DALEY

"A guiding star thy heart;
No lack of light or fragrance where thou,
Glad poet, art!"

With Gratitude

Every Freshman Class that enters Cathedral High School looks forward to the time when they will publish their edition of THE TOWER. The Class of 1941 was no exception in this respect. When we came to the actual work of publication, however, we found that our efforts were aided immeasurably by—

Father Sullivan, who permitted us to have the book, and cooperated with THE TOWER Board in every possible way;

Mr. John J. Herbert, who gave so much of his time in his capacity as faculty advisor;

The Free Press Printing Co. and the Cheshire Engraving Co., whose expert work has made such an attractive book possible;

Mr. Paige, whose excellent photographic effects adorn most of these pages.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to all these and many others who may have contributed in any way to the publication of this yearbook.

Thanks to Advertisers

The Class of 1941, publishers of this TOWER, wish to thank publicly the merchants and professional men of Burlington and Winooski who by their generosity and cooperation have aided materially in the publication of this yearbook.

The succeeding pages are devoted to their advertisements. They are a grand testimony to the fine support and encouragement that these men have given. We thank you for your kindness, and hope that you may be compensated for your goodness with the patronage of those who read this book.
